Read the passage below carefully then answer the questions that follows.

Janet was a very beautiful girl who was admired by many people for her beauty and charm. Janet was also hard working at home and upheld the respect for people. However her friends were jealous of her and always ill-treated her. One day her friends were going to visit a reputed specialist to have their teeth filled, spaced and beautified. Janet joined the girls. They all had their teeth beautifully done and the girls looked very attractive and charming but no one looked as pretty as Janet. The specialist praised Janet's teeth and beauty and added that she had natural beauty and charm in everything. This annoyed the girls. On their way home, they met some young men in the forest. Those young men admired Janet's teeth. This made the girls become angry as they were already very jealous of Janet's beauty. They all agreed to get rid of Janet by burying her alive in a hole which was somewhere in the forest. It was now suggested that they should all enter the forest and gather some firewood with them. They all agreed to go and gather firewood and Janet was particularly eager to take some home. After the girls had collected the firewood, they set off for home. When they reached the hole in the forest, they pushed Janet in it so quickly that she did not have time to scream. They sealed the hole very carefully and so buried her alive. On their way home, they did not talk to anybody about Janet. That evening Janet did not return home. Her parents went about asking Janet's friends if they had been with Janet or if they had seen her that day. They all denied having been with her. All that time Janet cried bitterly. Her absence caused so much concern that her father had to consult diviners and seems to find out what happened to his daughter, but he did not succeed. Janet's brother knew all the time that most of the girls in the village had been jealous of his sister and hated her, so he suspected foul play. He left home and started out to search for his sister and traced the route which the girls had taken on their way from the specialist. When he came upon the hole, he noticed footmarks and a bundle of firewood abandoned nearby. He then started to dig then he heard her sister's voice and confirmed that she had been buried there by her friends. He started digging frantically and removing the soil until he found his sister who was in good shape. Janet recounted what her friends had done to her. The girls who had tried to kill Janet were taken before the elders and their case was heard and a judgment was passed.
